Aim

The Healthy Information Resource Centre aims to offer support to teachers, parents and social workers in providing proper guidance and counselling to youngsters in order to enhance their ability to deal with objectionable information and minimize the adverse effects of such information on them.

Resources

We provide reference materials on the “Control of Obscene and Indecent Articles Ordinance”, media education, sex education and a wide range of child and teen issues. Available in the format of book, study report, video tape, audio tape, CD-ROM or teaching kit, these materials are provided for the public’s reference in the Centre.

Facilities

The Centre provides TV sets, multimedia PC systems, hi-fi equipment, etc. to facilitate public access to the reference materials.

Notes:

1. Target visitors are mainly parents, teachers, parents and social workers (at most 25 participants each time).
2. Visits will be arranged according to the order of receiving applications.
3. Confirmation will be made within 5 working days after an application by fax is received.
4. For inquiries, please call 2594 5856.
